New Jersey Highlands Coalition ACTION ALERT

DEP's "Highlands Workgroup" Meeting June 15, 7:00-10:00 P.M., Morris County College

Sign Up Now to Protect the Highlands!

With uncertainty continuing about the future of the Highlands preservation effort swirling about, the Department of Environmental Protection is holding a series of "stakeholder meetings" to inform the future direction of Highlands policy.

Importantly, the NJDEP is holding a "stakeholder meeting" on June 15, that you can attend.

But, you must take immediate action to be invited to this meeting.

Please contact Marybeth Brenner at DEP marybeth.brenner@dep.state.nj.us, ask to attend the June 15 evening meeting at Morris County College.

According to DEP, the focus of the meeting is the implementation of the Highlands Act, its challenges and successes. The DEP expects the Morris County meeting to include "individual landowners who will talk about the impact of the Highlands Act on them."

Your presence and support of the Act, the DEP Highlands Rules, and the Regional Master Planning now under way, will be critical. If you wish to speak to the importance of making New Jersey sustainable by maintaining the Act's protections of water supplies on which over 5 million New Jersey residents depend, as well as the region's forests, farmland, wildlife, historic and scenic resources, and the community character of the region's towns, villages and hamlets, NOW IS THE TIME!
