New Jersey Highlands Coalition Action Alert

Unity Rally to STOP the Susquehanna-Roseland Line

The Delaware Water Gap and Appalachian Trail are at risk!

Join friends from both Pennsylvania and New Jersey for a Rally to STOP the Susquehanna-Roseland Line on Saturday, October 23rd from 11am-1 pm at the Portland Walking Bridge.

Let's stand united against this project that is all about GREED and not about NEED.

Utility companies PSE&G and PPL are planning to expand this power line with new high voltage wires and 195 ft towers that would stand twice as high as our forests- destroying the scenic vistas and natural resources of the Lehigh Valley, the Highlands, the Appalachian Trail and the Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area.

NPS is currently drafting an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) on this ill-advised project, which includes a No Action Alternative. This alternative will ensure the towers are not built in anyone's backyard. There are better ways to meet our energy needs and these towers should not be built!

Join us at the Unity Rally to STOP the Susquehanna-Roseland Line to learn more and voice your support for the No Action Alternative!

- Rally at the Portland Walking Bridge to show the utilities that NJ and PA are united to defeat this ill-advised proposal
- Speakers from a variety of organizations fighting the project
- Information tables to learn more

Join us Saturday, October 23
from 11am- 1pm
Portland Walking Bridge
Rt. 611 & Main St., Portland, PA
We will meet on the PA side
at the foot of the bridge,
Rain or Shine
